Difficult experiences in childhood, adolescence or adulthood.

A common emotional response to opposition, related to anger, annoyance and disappointment.

One way that behavior is affected by emotions is through motivation, which drives a person's behavior.

The feeling that you have when something dangerous, painful or frightening might happen.

Emotions like frustration and boredom can lower motivation and,thus,lower the chance that we will act.

Behavior is different from emotions but is very strongly influenced by them.

Comes from the latin frustrationem, "a deception or a disappointment."
